A Wedding.

A quiet yet beautiful wedding took place on Wednesday forenoon, June 11th, at the Congregational Church, Miss Helen J. Chamberlain of Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, was married to Dr. Charles G. Ives of Peconia, Ill. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Mr. J. P. Chamberlain of this place, in the presence of a concourse of relatives and friends. The Misses Cyra Cutter, Ray Coman, Blanche Cutter and Celia Newman preceded the bride carrying flowers. Miss Kitty Chamberlain was bride's maid and Dr. Frank Lyman the groom's best man. After the ceremony was performed they repaired with relatives and a few invited friends to the home of the bride's uncle, where a beautiful wedding breakfast was served. Those from abroad were Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain of Honolulu, S. I., Dr. F. Lyman of Madison, Wis., Mrs. Lightbody and daughter, Miss Lightbody of Lacrosse, Mr. and Mrs. Ives departed amid showers of rice on the C. B. & N. train Wednesday noon for Peconia, Ill., their future home. The bride is one of Honolulu's fair daughters, cultured, and esteemed by all who know her. A young lady who has a host of friends and all of whom including the Herald unite in wishing her much happiness and success in her new life. The groom is a rising young doctor of Peconia, Ill., well and favorably known. Their numerous friends will wish them unbounded happiness. — Trempealeau, (Wis.) Herald.

Drill on Palace Square.

On Tuesday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock the U. S. squadron battalion consisting of marines and blue jackets from the U. S. ships Charleston, Nipsic and Iroquois had drill on Palace square. The Charleston band was in attendance. There were two companies of marines, eight of blue jackets, and the hospital and artillery companies. Their Majesties the King and Queen were seated in the lookout on the old Gibson premises and were attended by Mr. J. W. Robertson Vice Chamberlain and Mrs. Robertson. Admiral Brown and Staff, Hon. J. L. Stevens U. S. Minister Resident, His Ex. John A. Cummins, Mr. H. W. Severance, U. S. Consul-General and others were present. The battalion presented arms the band playing Hawaii Pono. It then executed the manual of arms and after marching once past the King and suite, marched from the square to the wharf. A large crowd of people was on the square.

New Steamers.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad Co. is having three new steamers built in Scotland for the Pacific line, between Japan and China. They will each be of 5700 tons gross register, and 10,000 horse-power, with steel hulls, twin screws, double bottoms, compartments, and all the latest improvements. It is thought they will be good for eighteen knots an hour on their trial trips. The first one will be launched in August, and will probably go on the station early next year. At the speed above mentioned these vessels could make the trip from Vancouver to Yokohama in ten days, and to Hongkong in fourteen days, as against the record of twenty-one days to the latter place made by the steamer China of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

A copy of "The Wave," printed on board the U. S. Flagship Charleston, has been received. John L. Bennett is the editor and Ralph N. Folks, publisher. It gives a full account of the celebration of the Glorious Fourth, and has a kindly notice on the departure of Chaplain Hudson. It is well gotten up in every respect.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

The following decisions have been rendered by the Supreme Court in banco:—

Wailuku Sugar Co. vs. Wm. Dean. This case decides that the Act to provide for the sale of mortgaged property without suit and decree of sale, C. L. p. 563, does not require that the acts to be done by the mortgagee in order to sell the mortgaged property shall be done by him personally. They may be done on his behalf.

The Minister of the Interior vs. the Papaikou Sugar Co. This case decides that in order to obtain a Royal Patent granting a fee simple title in a land awarded by the Commission to Quiet Land Titles, the owner must pay to the Government a commutation of its share thereon one-third of the unimproved value of the land at the time the award was made.

The Hawaiian Government vs. Bishop & Co. and The Hawaiian Government vs. Claus Spreckels & Co. These cases decide that a bill of discovery will not lie in favor of an assessor of taxes to ascertain a taxpayer the amount of his property liable to taxation, and that money deposited in a bank is a debt due from the bank to the depositor and is not liable to be taxed to the depositor.

In re Estate of Kealiiahonui. Petition to revoke probate. The Court sustains the plea in bar of respondent.

S. K. Mahu, et al vs. David Dayton, Adm. Exceptions from Bickerton, J. The Court overrules the exceptions.

In re application of the Minister of the Interior for a writ of mandamus vs. Geo. J. Ross, Auditor-General. Vouchers for the support, maintenance and guarding of prisoners while employed on the Voicaroo road were presented by the Minister of the Interior to the Auditor-General for approval: the appropriation for that road was exhausted at the time said work was performed and said bills incurred. The vouchers were drawn upon the appropriation for support of prisoners.

The Court held that the Auditor-General should have audited and approved them.

Theo. H. Davies & Co. vs. W. H. Daniels. The covenant on the part of the vendors in a bill of sale of merchandise in a store and the good will of the business for the term of five years within a radius of five miles, was that "they will not during such time or in said area engage in, or interest themselves in carrying on or conducting a mercantile business, and if they or either of them shall so engage in mercantile business, they or he shall thereupon forfeit and pay to the said party of the second part, and his executors, administrators and assigns, one thousand dollars."

Held: although the sum of one thousand dollars is liquidated damages, equity has jurisdiction to enjoin the defendant from committing a breach of the covenant, it not appearing that the payment of the one thousand dollars was an alternative which the vendor (defendant) had the option to adopt in lieu of a strict performance of the contract.

BRIDAL WREATHS.

Dr. Campbell, of Kauai, and Miss Rhodes Married at St. Andrew's Cathedral.

Dr. Dugald Campbell, Government physician at Waimea, Kauai, and Miss Mabel Sidney Rhodes were united in marriage at St. Andrew's Cathedral Tuesday at noon, by the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh, who performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner. Miss Marie von Holt was maid of honor and Mr. J. B. Alexander, M. A., of Kilauea, best man. The bride entered the Cathedral punctually at noon, leaning on the arm of Hon. Cecil Brown, (who gave her away) to the strains of the Bridal March. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and a few friends witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Covington, Mrs. Alexander Mackintosh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Brown, Mrs. F. W. Glade, Captain and Mrs. M. S. Sinclair, Miss Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Walker, Mr. H. von Holt were among those present. Soft music was played on the organ during the entire ceremony and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the newly married couple left the Cathedral. Mr. Wray Taylor presiding at the organ. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the residence of the Rev. Alex. and Mrs. Mackintosh, Nuuanu Avenue, where a wedding breakfast was served. Dr. Campbell and his bride left on the Mikahala in the afternoon for Waimea, Kauai, their future home. The ADVERTISER joins in wishing them long life and happiness.

Myrtle Boat Club.

The regular monthly meeting of the Myrtle Boat Club was held Wednesday evening, a large number of members being present. It was also the annual election of officers which resulted as follows: A. G. M. Robertson, president; J. A. Gilman, vice-president; W. T. Monsarrat, secretary; Chas. T. Wilder, treasurer; J. L. Torbert, captain; A. W. Carter, W. H. Wright and Sam Louissou, trustees. His Ex. A. P. Peterson and Oscar Branch were elected members. This popular organization is in a healthy condition.

Nobles Parker and Cornwell are as playful in the house, as two schoolboys out for a holiday.
